Runaway Bay Golf Club - Championship Golf in Jamaica

The Runaway Bay Golf Club is a seventy-two (72) par, eighteen (18) holes championship golf course which offers an exhilarating experience for beginners and accomplished golfers alike.

The course was designed by Major John Harris from Britain and was opened in 1960. The features of the golf course are long rolling fairways, large flat greens protected by grassy mounds and sand bunkers. It has hosted many events including the Ryder Cup match between the United Kingdom and the West Indies. The Jamaica Open, The Brinks (JA) Classic. The Heineken World Cup Qualifier, CNBC Nations Cup and numerous JGA Qualifiers. The course measures 5,389 yards and is slope rated 117 from the forward trees. From the back it measures 6,870 yards and is slope rated 124.

Strength of the Course: Well trapped (protecting it from errant shots) course length and wind gusts up to 35m.p.h. Course Professional: Seymour A. Rose former International Tour player and current Senior Series card holder.

Course Record: Set by Seymour A. Rose (62) in 1982.
